Lake Eustis Institute

Enlighten your view of the world...

All classes meet in either the Institute's conference room or class room. Both are located at 135 N. Grove St., Eustis. A large lighted parking lot is behind the building. To reserve your place: call 352.357.3995 or go online to: www.lakeeustisinstitute.org and click on Classes.

2010 Schedule to be Published Sunday January 10th

Registration for CLASSES closes Jan. 15. Use the Membership and application forms in the insert, or go to www.lakeeustisinstitute.org and download the registration form. Or call the office: 352.357.3995.

The entire spring semester of classes and events at the Institute will be published this Sunday, January 10, 2010 as an insert in the Lake Sentinel. The insert gives a detailed description of the classes along with information on the instructors.

New this year is a reservation deadline. All Class reservations must be made and fees paid by Friday, January 15th. If classes do not make their reservations quotas, participants will be notified on the afternoon of the 15th and fees will be returned.

There is something for everyone in the spring semester. American Sign Language with an instructor from the National Deaf Academy, Conversational Spanish to get you ready for that trip you are planning, Happiness will get you out of your winter slump, Italian Cooking brings the cooking secrets of local Chef Gianni, Landscaping for Aesthetics and Wildlife will get you ready for the incomparable Florida spring growing season, The Real Florida in Fiction & Prose looks behind the glitz and glitter at the type of people who braved this wild, hot peninsula before air conditioning, Great Ideas from the Great Books discusses the big questions, Journey into Self-awareness makes relationships more successful, Tibetan Buddhist Meditation will get you centered, Unraveling the Mysteries of the Mind-Brain will make you a better thinker, We Guard Our Children's Future takes a global look at current issues and how our decisions today will affect our grandchildren, and Writing Workshops will help you with your memoirs or works of fiction.

RESERVE NOW FOR THE 3RD BIENNIAL BARTO PRIZE CONCERT

Renowned concert pianist and local resident Tzimon Barto will present the third Barto Prize concert at the State Theatre (home of the Bay Street Players) on March 20, 2010 at 7:30 PM. There are still good seats available. Go to www.baystreetplayers.org, click on Barto Prize Concert, select your seats, and make your reservation. Or, call 352.357.7777 after 1:00 PM and make your reservation by phone.

The international judging panel is in the process of selecting the winner of the prize which is given for a solo piano composition. Barto will play the winning composition during the March 20th concert.

COMMUNITY CONCERT SERIES CONTINUES

A need for repairs to the Woman's Club of Eustis building has required a move of the Sunday Afternoon Community Concert Series two blocks south to the First Presbyterian Church's Fellowship Hall. The times remain the same, 3-5 PM and the musicians are still provided by Stetson University's School of Music. Concerts are scheduled for January 24, February, 28, and April 25. Call 352.357.3995 to reserve.

ATTEND THE FIRST SUNSET CELEBRATION OF THE NEW YEAR

January. 13; 5-7 pm, 135 N. Grove St.
