An asset unlikely to depreciate...

Florida teems with great visual artists...maybe because every vista is appealing. Now, selecting art for your home or office can be profitable as well as pleasurable. Unlike most assets these days, good art will most likely appreciate in value.

The Institute, in partnership with Ruggie Wealth Management, is hosting an exhibit of contemporary Florida artists from the McRae Art Studios in Winter Park from March 14 – 21, 2009. Open from 1-4 PM except on Sunday, March 15th, the exhibit is free to the public.

An opening reception on March 13 from 6- 8 PM will feature Jim Parham, curator to several major corporate and private art collections. Parham will give attendees some pointers on collecting art as an investment and will use examples from his own collections. The cost of the reception is $30 per person.

A Black Tie & Blue Jeans Gala Dinner & Auction will conclude the exhibit on March 21. Held at Lake Receptions from 7-10 PM, proceeds from the dinner and auction will benefit the programs of the Institute. Tickets are $75 and can be purchased by calling 253.257.3995 or visiting

Plan Now for March 11 Sunset Celebration

Do you know what a salon is? No, it is not the place where you go to get beauty treatments. A salon is a gathering of people interested in all kinds of things. It is a place to discuss one's interests with like-minded people. The second Wednesday of the month is a time to meet and greet members of the Institute. Conversations can be serious or frivolous.

Come to the March 11 Celebration of the Setting of the Florida Sun. 5-7 PM with an honors bar. Open to all Institute members and guests. Not a member, yet? Call 352-357-3995 or visit www.lakeeustisinstitute.org.

New Cooking Class to Be Held

Great news!, Valerie Hart will hold a second cooking class. The February 28th class sold out almost immediately. Valerie Hart is a Cordon Bleu chef and hosts LakeFront TV's Back of the House, a weekly program on Lake County restaurants. Call 352-357-3995 to get on the waiting list.
